Bronzes

Greetings from Ruaha!

For many, including ourselves, this is proving to be an extraordinary year! The world is changing in so many different ways, it is often hard to process it all. However, one thing remains the same, and that is nature. Nature is a real anchor, reminding us that life is good and beautiful, a day in the park or garden does much to uplift the spirits.

We hope that the photos of these lovely bronzes will brighten up your day or make an already bright day even better!

"Steamed up" - Bull elephant bronze no 200. - 40cm long x 20cm wide x 30cm high.

"Wild dogs"

Are fascinating animals, with large territories and strong family bonds. Rob has captured their characters perfectly in this lovely sculpture.

Bronze no. 228.
42cm long x 20cm
wide x 32cm high.

Kudu antelope are incredibly good at concealing themselves behind dry, sticky bushes. Often times one misses them altogether, despite that they are right beside the road!

Rob's 'Kudu alerted' encapsulates that still, silent moment when they stand motionless, carefully surveying what lies ahead.

Bronze no. 190.
58cm long x 25cm wide x 63.5cm high.

" Old Maasai"

Bronze no. 196
18cm long x 18cm wide x 35.5cm high

The essence of these regal people is expressed in this striking bronze of an elderly Maasai man.

A lone bull giraffe standing tall, perhaps he has seen a female way off in the distance, or perhaps a rival male.

Bronze no 171
30.5cm long x 15cm wide x 63.5cm high

Four Impalas leaping

What a decorative piece this is! Impalas are exquisitely elegant, never more so when they leap.

Bronze no 227
60cm long x
26cm wide x 40cm
high

Horse head

Bronze no 197

15cm long x 15cm wide x 38cm tall

This lovely sculpture concludes this selection of bronzes.

Thank you for taking the time to view these lovely sculptures.

Finally, here is a quote by Pablo Neruda

“you can cut all the flowers but you can’t keep the spring from coming”
